"The Sons of Liberty"—A Treasonable Oath.

We have procured a veritable copy of the oath administered to the initiates into the treasonable order which existed all over the North where enough Copperheads could be found to make an "encampment," "council," "lodge" or "circle" during the last Presidential election, and for some months afterward. Below we publish it, to show the Oregon public, the infamous and treasonable purposes of that Democratic association sometimes called "The Sons of Liberty," sometimes "The Old Guard," and sometimes "The Jones Family." The copy is a true one, as more than one of the candidates on the Democratic State ticket will acknowledge to his own conscience, even though he deny it to the world, which latter he was also sworn to do. Here is the OATH as administered to those who were thought safe to be trusted with a knowledge of the real designs of the order:

> You do solemnly swear to resist the draft and support the Democratic party in the doctrines of the Breckinridge wing of the same, and that you will use all your endeavors by money and influence, to oppose the present administration of Lincoln, and all those appointed under him who have not the sign of the Brotherhood, and if called upon to execute any sentence passed by the Grand Council of the United States, to do the same, you will leave your family and friends, even on their dying beds, so to do. All this you solemnly swear to do. So help you God.

When candidates were introduced who were suspected of not being enough imbued with treason to resist the constituted authorities of the Government, the following oath was administered in lieu of the first one quoted:

> You do solemnly swear to support the Constitution of the United States, the State of Oregon and any other state or Territory under which you may be living, but that you will support the Democratic party in all legal ways where it does not conflict with the Constitution of the State."

That these oaths are genuine, and that they are two of the oaths administered to the members of the order in Oregon can be verified beyond cavil. Many Democrats were induced to take the latter oath under the assurances that the organization was not disloyal and only intended to bind together and concentrate the political strength of the Democratic party. Those of more vicious Democracy were offered the first oath—and they took it. All that class were armed, in every part of this State, and sworn to resist not only the draft but all authority of the United States, in a given contingency. It was understood that if McClellan got two thirds or three-quarters as many votes as Lincoln it would be safe to make the attempt to revolutionize and depose the loyal Government; and that if the election returns made such a showing, it would be followed by riots in New York, St. Louis, Chicago and cities along the Canada border, as the initiatory movements. In such an event the Oregon members of the order were sworn to rise, and seize the State Government and hold it to await further orders from the Grand Council. WE ARE SPEAKING FROM THE RECORD. The belief that riots would follow the election in all the cities named, was expressed by the Copperheads, everywhere in this State, and rumors of such riots were freely started and circulated, even while the telegraph was down for several days immediately succeeding the election. They thought its silence attributable to the fact of such riots being then in progress, and offers of large bets were made in several parts of the State, by leading Copperheads, that the first news from the East would be of "bloody work."

McClellan's meagre vote showed those conspiring traitors that they were not strong enough to make the contemplated attempt at revolution, and so the contingency upon which depended the outbreak and "war right here on Oregon soil," threatened by Copperheads all over the country, did not happen. To the election of Lincoln by an overwhelming vote, Oregon owes her exemption from the bloody scenes of civil war.

The bullying tone of Copperhead orators and press, and the frequent threats and predictions of "a bloodier war than the one lately closed," indicate plainly that this treasonable order—under a new name—still exists in Oregon. The same deduction is naturally drawn from Mosher's Jones letter to "Dear Mac."

Will any loyal man support for office, the party of the candidates who introduced and conducted such a treasonable organization in Oregon?

LANE IN SUPPORT OF JOHNSON AND SEWARD.—The "young man" who is the Copperhead candidate for Secretary of State says "he and the Democratic party stand by President Johnson." They did not stand by him when he stood up in Tennessee against traitors, nor did they stand by him when he said "treason must be made odious," nor did they stand by him when he said "traitors must be punished." Then they stood against him. Every Union man knows this—every Democrat knows it—Andy Johnson knows it. Lane, the Confederate Abraham, did not stand by Johnson when in the U. S. Senate the latter excoriated him for treasonable utterances. Not much. Neither did Col. John, nor did the distinguished son of his distinguished father, nor did any other Copperhead. The distinguished father of his distinguished son, stood by Jeff Davis, whom he eulogized as THE PUREST AND BRAVEST OF PATRIOTS. The distinguished son stood by his distinguished father when he said in the U. S. Senate:

> For the sake of consistency with all my past professions as a Democrat I am bound to respect the declared will of the sovereign States which for reasons satisfactory to themselves have seceded from the Union and established a separate and independent form of Government.

For the sake of consistency with all his past professions and practices as a Democrat, the son of his distinguished father, and all other latter day Democrats should continue to stand by Jeff Davis, to "respect the will" of the secessionists, to declare as did Jo Lane in the U. S. Senate that the act of "interference was an act of tyranny and usurpation," instead of making professions of loyalty which they and everybody else know to be hollow, hypocritical and false. Democrats stand by Johnson only so far as they believe that he is disposed to shield traitors from that punishment which the American people have long since pronounced ought to be visited upon the villains who sought to destroy the Government. Mention an act or word of Johnson's which does not tend to the exoneration of traitors from punishment, and not one of the candidates on the Democratic State ticket will endorse it without a qualification, nor can one of them endorse such an act or word without being false to all his former record as a Democrat.

Democrats talk of "standing by that great man, Seward!" When J. Lane was canvassing Oregon for the U. S. Senate he denounced Seward as a "political agitator," as a man who was seeking the destruction of the Union." Jo and John and "the distinguished son of his distinguished father" all agreed in that opinion of Seward till he announced himself in favor of admitting all Southern representatives. When he did that Jo and John and the distinguished son thinking that the act of immediate admission would let in more or less of traitors—it is well known that it would—and doubtless thinking they smelled some treason even on Seward's garments, they all made haste to announce that they "stand by Seward."

"Solid and Substantial."

> We trust the OREGONIAN will continue publishing copious extracts from the Pike County Democrat—a paper which for five years we edited and published—for by so doing he gets something solid and substantial.—M. H. Abbott in the Oregon Herald, May 5th, 1866.

Your hope shall be gratified. Take the following "SOLID AND SUBSTANTIAL" extract from the Pike County Democrat, published in 1861:

> But how far will they (the Northern soldiers) be ready to encounter the danger of a march through any of the border slave States of the Union is a question which admits of easy solution. Not one of these States, which are now out of the Union, WILL EVER PERMIT AN ARMY MUSTERED IN THE FREE STATES TO PASS THEIR TERRITORY with a design of INVADING either of the States now in rebellion against the Federal Government. If Gov. Curtin (of Pennsylvania) wishes to test it let himself at the head of his troops attempt to march through Virginia, and so Mr. Lincoln may as well understand at once, it will be with all the HORDES he may send into the field for this purpose. His track will be marked with blood shed by the people of the slave States IN DEFENCE OF THEIR OWN TERRITORY and what they conceive to be the rights of the South.

If this isn't "SOLID AND SUBSTANTIAL" enough the following open threat of resistance against the Government may be thought better food for Democratic stomachs. It is an extract from an editorial which appeared in the Pike County Democrat on the 18th of June, 1863. Will M. H. Abbott say "it didn't come from our pen, and we never endorsed it?" The article bears the head of "THE POSITION OF THE DEMOCRACY OF PIKE COUNTY;" therefore, it was M. H. Abbott himself, speaking for the "solid and substantial" principles of his party:

> They (the Democrats) are firmly convinced that Mr. Lincoln, in the punishment of Vallandigham, violated every principle of the constitution, and showed a disposition to deny to every Democrat—FOR THEY ALL ENDORSE VALLANDIGHAM—the right to criticise the acts of those in power, and subjugate every man to willing obedience to military despots. They denounce such outrages and are determined that such things shall not be tolerated in their midst. They do not desire to intimidate any one, but THESE MONSTROUS ATROCITIES ON THEIR LIBERTIES MUST STOP.

It must be owned that the above—in view of the fact that Vallandigham was convicted of discouraging enlistments and enticing men to desert, telling Democrats to resist the Government, for "IT WAS EASIER TO DIE AT HOME"—it must be owned we repeat, that the above is very "SOLID AND SUBSTANTIAL." Take an extract of the same sort from another editorial in the same paper:

> The people have become aroused to the true state of the country, and they are determined to PUT DOWN THE AGGRESSIONS OF THIS ADMINISTRATION.

A few more of the extracts which M. H. Abbott calls "something solid and substantial," will suffice for the present. On the 22d of January 1866, he wrote:

> The Confederate States will achieve their independence. Their independence will be acknowledged by the Federal Government. A SEPARATION HAVING BEEN THUS EFFECTED, WE BELIEVE THE WEST WILL INSIST UPON A SEPARATION FROM THE EAST. WE FOR ONE DO NOT WISH TO BE TIED ON TO THE EAST.
> The real national debts created by all parties will ultimately be repudiated.

To this loathsome mess of treason M. H. Abbott now returns as the dog to his vomit, to gorge his appetite, and calls the repast "SOLID AND SUBSTANTIAL."

GENERAL BAKER, MRS. COBB AND THE PRESIDENT.—The Chicago Republican of March 30th has the following, which appears to require an explanation from the President:

> The trial of General L. C. Baker for the false imprisonment of a woman known as Mrs. Lucy L. Cobb, and for extorting from her the sum of $200, was concluded in Washington on Tuesday, by his sentence to pay a fine of one dollar and costs. In passing this sentence, the Judge declared his opinion that in the whole transaction General Baker's intentions had not only been honest, but laudable, and that in his conviction the jury had regarded him as guilty of a technical offense merely. Such, we have no doubt, will be the judgment of all impartial persons who have examined the evidence upon which the verdict was founded. The facts of this case are that General Baker detected and arrested one Mrs. Cobb, said to be a woman of much personal beauty but of the lowest character, who was selling the President's pardons to rebels who stood in need of them and had the means to pay. It appears conclusively that the pardon which she furnished to the pretended rebel was not a forged document, but that it bore the genuine signature of the President of the United States, and was, in all respects, the same as the pardon bestowed upon Governor Humphreys of Mississippi or Governor Parsons of Alabama, or any other reconstructed Confederate. Now, the question which suggests itself to every mind is, how did this notorious creature procure this pardon and the others which she traded in?

A Denial and a Confession

Lane took occasion to go into a spasm of heroics, in his Portland speech, over a statement in the OREGONIAN to the effect that he (Lane) had declared himself in favor of admitting into Congress Jeff. Davis or A H Stephens, should they be elected Mr Lane, with the usual force which characterizes the modern logician of the Democratic school, drew himself up, rolled his eyes heavenward, scowled fiercely, and proved that he did not say those naughty things, by uttering the fearful words "YOU ARE A INFAMOUS LIAR" He was not in favor of admitting Jeff Davis—unless his constituents should elect him That was the substance of what he said at Portland by way of explaining what he said at Umatilla He held that the people of any State were the sole judges of their representatives' fitness and qualifications for office, and that Congress had no right to enquire further than to examine the certificate of election, to see whether the representative had been chosen according to the forms of law. No matter who might be sent up by the sovereign will of the people, if he should come with regular credentials, Congress must admit him at once, or it would be guilty of a violation of the Constitution This is precisely equivalent to the statement which he had just denied with so much virtuous indignation If the people of Mississippi should, in the exercise of their sovereign will, deem Jeff Davis fit to be a Senator, and should elect him, according to Lane's position, Congress could not refuse to admit him at once, and in case of refusal, would be guilty of violating the Constitution

It will thus be seen that Lane's reported Umatilla speech and his Portland speech were so nearly alike that if there could be found a distinction in language, it would be without a difference in principle That he was in favor of admitting Jeff., if elected, was "AN INFAMOUS LIE!" That he would favor the admission of ANYBODY, if regularly elected, is precisely what he said here If that would not let in Jeff. Davis, then, indeed,

'A difference there must be
'Twixt tweedle-dum and tweedle dee.

FAY'S DEMAGOGUING SOPHISTRIES — In his speech here, the other night, Fay undertook to play upon the prejudices of the foreign born voters, by saying that the Civil Rights law discriminates in favor of negroes and Chinamen, as against every citizen of the United States, born in a foreign country. He coupled the idea of citizenship, as relating to both classes, with the right of suffrage, if not saying it in positive terms, yet, artfully conveying the impression that the rights of citizenship and of suffrage go together and are convertible terms, in meaning He then appealed to the foreign-born voters if they were willing to serve a term of five years in learning our [illegible] utions before being allowed to vote, while a [illegible] gro or Chinaman is allowed to vote without a [illegible] bation "

When Fay made this appeal, he knew that no [illegible] the United States authorizes or permits a negro or Chinaman to vote, anywhere, with or [illegible] probation, He knew that no such law is proposed to be enacted by any respectable number of men in the United States. The Civil Rights law does not contain any provision in relation to suffrage, either enforcing or restraining, as to conditions, but on the contrary—as published in the Eastern papers—expressly says in the 12th section, that nothing in the act shall be construed to interfere with the regulation of suffrage in any State by the Legislature thereof It is careful to not trench upon the right of a State to promulge its own regulations as to suffrage. It does not confer the right even to be protected in the Federal Courts, to negroes and Chinamen unless they were born in the United States, Those, not born here stand as before, with respect to rights and liabilities under United States law

Fay uttered palpable sophistry when he spoke of emigrants from foreign countries being treated with less consideration than a negro He pretends to be a lawyer, and as such he ought to know that a foreigner is not required to wait five years for the right of suffrage on the ground of a lack of knowledge or intelligence; and that he is not obliged to wait longer than his declaration of intention to become a citizen, for the rights of protection by law, just exactly as all native born citizens are protected He ought to know that the probation prescribed before the grant of suffrage, is put upon the ground that the immigrant comes here owing allegiance to a foreign government, and, of necessity, must purge himself of that allegiance before he can be invested with the full rights of American citizenship—that he must remain here long enough to manifest his full purpose to become something more than a sojourner —that he has adopted this country as his own This is the reason why he must wait for the privilege of suffrage, and all enlightened nations agree upon the rightfulness and political necessity of such probation, in order to avoid injustice and confusion both in the administration of local law and the management of the relations between sovereign powers

What intelligent and fair-minded foreigner will claim that he is better entitled to protection, immunities and privileges upon stepping ashore from the emigrant ship than another man who was born here and has attained the age of twenty one years? And yet, Mr Fay seeks to create the impression in the minds of foreign born voters that they are cheated by the United States government for five years, out of their rights and that the five years probation is something monstrous—because, forsooth, the government has abandoned an unjust discrimination between men, and placed them on an equal footing as to rights that belong naturally as much to one man as to another

"Do we want our sisters and daughters to marry niggers?" shriek the Democrats indignantly We ask by way of reply Do Democrats themselves want to marry negro women? We venture to say that white women will not become fascinated with black men sooner than white men become fascinated with black women

The Louisville Journal says that the President's "reconstruction policy is what the South desires and what the Northern Democracy desires" In an equal number of words it would be impossible to say more. Loyal men, you have contended against rebels in the field and intended traitors at home, what do you think of it?

The Jacksonville Sentinel of the 12th inst says "Last week a quartz lead was discovered on Lightning Gulch, Josephine county which lays Poor Man, of Idaho in the shade In two hours $5,400 was taken out The contents of one pan was $2,000 The lead is perfectly yellow with gold It has been the opinion of experienced miners for years that there was a rich lead somewhere on Canyon creek, as it has been very rich and much coarse gold has been taken out The name of the lucky discoverer of this immense wealth is Mallott."

From the Jacksonville Sentinel we learn that Deputy Sheriff Reams of Jackson County, brought into that town on Monday last, a crazy man giving his name as Sam Fondis, but better known on Rogue River as Wild Sam He has been stopping around Dry Diggings for some time, living on acorns, wild fruit, etc His house consisted of a small pen covered with brush He attempted to mine but always set his sluices so that the tail end was higher than the head He also attempted to fence in a side hill by a ditch, but threw the dirt on the upper side and then built a fence to keep it from falling back into the ditch He will probably be sent to Portland before long

On Monday last, says the Jacksonville Sentinel of the 12th inst, a fire broke out on California street, between Oregon and First, in the house formerly owned by A O Alberts Linn & Hall's carpenter shop was on one side but a few feet off, and a dwelling house on the other, still closer, but by the use of wet blankets the fire was confined to the one building, The principal sufferer is C W Savage, who owned the property He estimates his loss at $600 Asher Wall was living in the house, but succeeded in saving his furniture, except what was in the second story His loss is about $250 H Brietbbarth and M Brentano, lost each about $150 by breaking and removing furniture It was extremely lucky that the fire was kept out of the carpenter shop, otherwise, the whole business part of the town would probably have been consumed

"Loyal Secessionists"

Democratic speakers and writers have the impudence to tell the people that it makes no difference whether the men who ask for their suffrages are, in principle, secessionists or not; secession is not now a 'live issue,' therefore secessionists and rebels are as loyal to the Union as other persons But if the principle of secession be correct, as Fay, Lane and O Meara have claimed and still claim it is, how happens it that it is not a 'live issue?' The principle—if its advocates think it is a true one, and Fay says he does—will be asserted again the moment there is a prospect for it to succeed Where will the Democratic candidates be found then? Just where they were before—advocating the right of secession and opposing the Government in vindicating its authority. It is folly supreme to trust a man with political power who believes in the right of secession He will endeavor to enforce the principle he believes in whenever opportunity offers or whenever there is a promise of success Fay tells us that he is a secessionist in principle, where, then is his Unionism? "Loyal secessionists" and white black birds are about equally rare

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL —Since the passage of the Civil Rights bill by the Senate over the veto, the bill has been generally republished by the press, but with the omission of the latest amendment it has received—an amendment which for some minds it may be important to state It provides that nothing in the bill shall be construed to interfere with the regulation of the suffrage in any State by the Legislature thereof This relieves the measure from the charge of giving the freedmen the ballot or trespassing upon reserved States rights in this respect The bill of Civil Rights consists of twelve instead of eleven sections, and is published in this form by many of the leading journals of the East. We have before us the true copy published in the St Louis Democrat which contains the additional section relating to suffrage

PRESIDENTIAL VETOES —The New York Commercial in commenting on the fact of the passage of the Civil Rights bill says it is the second instance in our history where a measure has become a law after having been vetoed by the President and publishes the following statement of the number of vetoes since the formation of the Government By George Washington 2 James Madison 6; James Monroe 1 Andrew Jackson 9 John Tyler, 4; James K Polk 3, James Buchanan, 1 Andrew Johnson 2

DEFEATED AND WHY —The Albany Journal says that Mr Richard Powers of Linn county a candidate in the Copperhead convention was beaten on the alleged charge that he was a member of the M E Church and had acted as a marshal at a Fourth of July celebration at Lebanon during the late rebellion

It will be remembered that Jo Smith was defeated in the Democratic State Convention for a similar sin against Democracy

The Sentinel says that before Lee's surrender Fay declared

> I am opposed to coercion Horace Greeley at the commencement of the war was in favor of letting the Southern States go in peace He has changed but I have never changed I am still in favor of letting the [illegible]

And he is still in favor of letting them go at least he told us so here only last week He declares as vehemently as ever that he is still opposed to coercion therefore he is in favor of letting any States depart in peace that may desire to go

> We never did believe in or advocate the right of secession—Oregon Herald May 15th 1866
> Why not let them (the Southern States) go out peaceably? Why not have [illegible] tal in [illegible] just settle and separate amicably?—Herald [illegible] Apr [illegible] 1861

From the above it will appear conclusively that we never did believe in or advocate the right of secession

The Jacksonville Sentinel in noticing O'Meara's discourse on repudiation, closes with "We advocate but one kind of repudiation James—the repudiation of such men as you at the polls"

THE FINAL WORD.—Mr A. D. Richardson, one of the [illegible] party, copies the following poem—entitled "Sun set at the mouth of the Columbia"—written by Mrs Frances Fuller Victor of this city, as his closing words to the New York Tribune on a subject of which he had written so much entitled "From the Missouri to the Pacific." Mr Richardson says "I copy it from the San Francisco Bulletin, "in slight atonement to the reader for holding him so long over deserts which by no means seem as fine, rich, and among quartz-mines whose owners would fain have their richness told in Gath and published in the streets of Askelon."

There sinks the sun; like cavalier of old,
Servant of crafty Spain
He flaunts his banner, barred with blood and gold,
Wide o'er the western main;
A [illegible] spear heads glint beyond the trees
In columns bright and long
While kindling fancy hears upon the breeze
The swell of shout and song.

And yet not here Spain's gay, adventurous host
Dipped sword or planted cross;
The treasures guarded by this rock-bound coast
Counted them gain nor loss.
The blue Columbia, sired by the eternal hills
And wedded with the sea,
O'er golden sands, tithes from a thousand rills,
Rolled in lone majesty—

Through deep ravine, through burning, barren plain,
Through wild and rocky strait,
Through forest dark, and mountain rent in twain
Toward the sunset gate;
While curious eyes, keen with the lust of gold
Caught not the I[illegible] forming gleam,
These mighty breakers age on age have rolled
To meet this mighty stream.

Age after age these noble hills have kept,
The same majestic lines;
Age after age the horizon's edge been swept
By fringe of pointed pines.
Summers and Winters circling came and went Bringing no change of scene;
Unresting, and [illegible] and unspent,
Dwelt Nature here serene.

Till God's own time to plant of Freedom's seed,
In this selected soil
Denied forever unto blood and greed,
But blest to honest toil.
Sink, sink the sun! Gay Cavalier! no more
His banners trail the sea,
And his legions shining on the shore
Fade into mystery.

The swelling tide laps on the shingly beach,
Like any starving thing;
And hungry breakers, white with wrath, upreach,
In vain clamoring.
The shadows fall; just level with mine eye
Sweet Hesper stands and shines
And shines beneath an arc of golden sky,
Pinked round with pointed pines.

A noble sound all her [illegible] lth, deep tone and power,
Suggesting glorious themes
Shaming the idler who would fill the hour
With unsubstantial dreams,
Be mine the dreams prophetic, shadowing forth
The things that yet shall be,
When through this gate the treasures of the North
Flow outward to the sea.

SALE OF CAPT. ANKENY'S PROPERTY.—The sale of Capt. Ankeny's private residence, grounds and household [illegible] yesterday, was attended quite largely. Mr. Richardson [illegible] the sale and his opening remarks were [illegible] that would have done the greatest grumbler good. It was stated that the reason Capt. Ankeny [illegible] was by no means because of his losing [illegible] confidence in the permanency of [illegible] shakable answer, and the true cause [illegible] based upon matters of an entirely different [illegible]. He is still, and expects for years to be, identified [illegible] of this city. Mr. Richardson spoke [illegible] pertinent to the subject, and expressed the [illegible] would be backward in bidding from fears [illegible] any of Portland. No one should be discouraged [illegible] at an occasional dull spell in their business [illegible], and while he was willing that any should [illegible] was a dull spell here, he would have them [illegible] the business prospects of San Francisco [illegible] than the prospects of Portland to-day, [illegible] about him who would remember the times [illegible] was to be built at Benicia, which was to [illegible] Francisco in the shade," and it was worthy of [illegible] instead of Benicia out-ranking San Francisco [illegible] its friends claim for it, the place [illegible] of the mark, and San Francisco had [illegible] position in the scale of cities in the [illegible] world. A [illegible] conclusion of his remarks an offer of [illegible] for lots 3 and 6, with the residence, and [illegible] until the property was knocked down [illegible] of the firm of Mann, Hill & Co., at [illegible] of lot 2, block 33, was next put up [illegible] party at $1,400, who also took the [illegible] at $[illegible] for the lot entire. The sale of [illegible] was then postponed and the household [illegible] disposed of. Mr. Richardson did himself [illegible] manner of conducting the sale, and although the property may be considered below the actual, the sale was bona fide.

[illegible].—We were shown yesterday at the [illegible] of Wells, Fargo & Co., the handsomest gold [illegible] ever yet seen. It was made from pure [illegible] four times, and the net value was over [illegible] 990 fine. The brick was made by [illegible] over 173 ounces, and was valued at [illegible]. It was said that the gold from the John Day [illegible] that reaches this city. Dust from [illegible] usually so much mixed that it requires a [illegible] know what price to fix upon it. [illegible] been detected in mixing John Day dust [illegible] other regions, and then trying to dispose of [illegible] from the mines of the one section, showing [illegible] there are tricks in that branch of trade as well as [illegible] of business. The most favorable reports [illegible] for extended mining operations in the John Day country the present season, and the different [illegible] the district will not fall short of the yield of former years.

[illegible].—A love of pictures is, with some members of [illegible] a principle of morality and religion, [illegible] in looking for fine specimens of art in this [illegible] its commendable. No man's private [illegible] business is furnished, unless the [illegible] with some class of pictures, and the [illegible] estimate in a great measure, of the [illegible] of a person. Since Messrs. Shanahan [illegible] established their place of business in [illegible] the picture trade has sprung into a very lively [illegible] that no matter what the plate is, [illegible] facilities for properly framing it. This being [illegible] Parrish Esq., of the [illegible] & Co. has made an extensive purchase [illegible] in the east, and one invoice opened at [illegible] a few days since, is well worth an [illegible] looking them over. People are invited to [illegible] at the pictures at Messrs. Parrish & Co.'s, whether they wish to purchase or not.

RECORDER'S COURT.—J. F. HOFFMAN, J., May 15th 1866.

[illegible] McCagh, suit for conducting a saloon without [illegible]; defendant fined $5 and costs, in default of which [illegible] to jail for five days. State of Oregon vs Wm. [illegible]. Plea of justification sustained [illegible] discharged. John Tuman, not Hay, [illegible] for drunken and disorderly conduct. Defendant [illegible] in jail for two days. Wallis Thomas [illegible] drunken and disorderly conduct, and sentenced [illegible] jail for two days. He was also tried for resisting officer Townsend, and drawing a knife, for which he was sentenced ten days. State of Oregon vs Fred. Minor, keeper of the Identical Saloon, accused of whipping his [illegible], defendant paid a fine of $50 and costs. Hop Wo was arraigned to plead to the charge of stealing clothing [illegible] his wash house, but the evidence was not satisfactory to the court, as showing that the complaining witness [illegible] apparel at the establishment, and defendant was [illegible].

JUSTICE'S COURT.—In the matter of the State of Oregon, Darius W. Taylor, a suit brought before Justice [illegible] yesterday, regarding a span of horses taken [illegible] stable of Tidd & Wyman, the case was continued [illegible] Friday. An action was commenced before Justice Hoffman against a farmer named Davis, who, as alleged in the complaint, sold six barrels of unwholesome flour to a merchant of this city named Mitchell. The suit was brought for damages to the extent of over [illegible], and various causes leading to this amount of damages [illegible] in the complaint, chief among which is one [illegible] forth that Mitchell was arrested, tried and convicted of selling some of the flour to his customers. The plaintiff claims that Davis warranted the flour, and defendant denies the warrantee. The case was continued until Monday next at 1 o'clock, P. M.

[illegible] WEATHER.—Rain fell in the region of this city yesterday, in quantities sufficient to saturate the soil, and [illegible] every species of fruit or produce, growing [illegible] which seems just now to shoot forward [illegible] everywhere. We are assured that a ride of a few miles in the country will satisfy any one that the farmers of the valley never had more flattering prospects at this season of the year. The crop of grains of all kinds, is said to be of the rankest growth, and the yield of the State will be sufficient to supply the entire country.

UNION CLUB MEETING.—The Multnomah County Union Club met at the rooms in the Rising Sun Hall last evening, at 8 o'clock, and the meeting was called to order by the President. The minutes of the previous meeting were read, after which short speeches were made by Captain Adams, Messrs. Upton, Dryer and Dolph, when the club adjourned until Saturday evening. The rooms will be open every day and evening and the tables well supplied with books, papers, etc. for the use of members of the Club. Union men are invited to make the rooms their headquarters.

THE SPEAKING TO DAY.—Hon. George L. Woods, and Col. J. K. Kelly will speak at the the Theatre to-day at 1 o'clock, P. M. We think it would have been better to have had the speaking deferred till evening, and Union County Committee so requested but the Democratic Committee would not consent to such an arrangement. We hope the Union men will turn out in full force to hear the debate. To hear the discussion will be well worth the time employed in attending it. We urge Union men to come out and give the candidates a good audience. A very able speech may be expected from Mr. Woods.

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.—We have received the printed opinions and decrees of the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Oregon in the case of Cullen C. Chapman vs. School District No. 1 in the city of Portland, and Benj. Stark, suit in equity to [illegible] title to real property. We made a synopsis of the opinion at the time of its delivery. The printed work [illegible] all, which is a matter of some considerable importance.

[illegible].—It is asserted on good authority that the Copperheads of this county have abandoned the hope of carrying the election here, and are already exporting their forces to other counties where they think they may be more [illegible]. Our informant states that about sixty Copperheads leave the city to-day for Salem, but there is [illegible] knowing that this shipment will not have a vote. They all wear shackles of the new invention, made for the State of Oregon.

THANKS.—Messenger West, of Wells, Fargo & Co., has our thanks for valuable favors.

Idaho News.

The World of the 5th inst., furnishes the following news items:

POSTAL AGENT BROOKS.

Quincy A. Brooks, Esq., postal agent for this Territory is looking after mail matters in this county. He visited Placerville, Centreville and Pioneer during the week making such suggestions as he thought necessary for the speedy and safe delivery of mail matter. Mr. Brooks is well pleased with the postoffice at this place and the general management of Mr. Pinney. If Mr. Brooks can succeed in ferreting, at the postoffice the rogue who infest the route between Idaho City and Owyhee habitually stealing newspapers from the mails he will earn the thanks of numerous sufferers from that source. Mr. Brooks is already on their track and is likely to make some trouble for them if the practice is continued.

TRAVELING FACILITIES.

DuRell & Co., are running a tri-weekly line of stages from Idaho City to Boise City and the steamboat landing on Snake river. As soon as the steamer commences running regularly the stages will run from Idaho City to the landing to connect with the steamer and with the Owyhee stages. Freight and passengers will be transferred to the steamer at the landing opposite Boise City and will connect with the stages again at Olds' Ferry. DuRell has lately purchased a number of new and commodious stages which are being placed upon the route.

LOOKING AFTER THE WEIGHTS.

Mr Henri Sayrs has commenced the examination of weights and measures. This is the first time that the weights and scales in use in this Basin have ever been looked after, and it is high time they were tried by some standard. The dust here is becoming bad enough, in all conscience, and when to this is added false weights and trickey scales the burden is a little too heavy.

The Broker's Board has been reorganized here for operations during the summer. It was in fine working order about a year ago, but the fire destroyed the building and ruined the Board for that season. May better luck attend it this time.

The celebrated Donald McDonald, better known as "Walla," has returned to Idaho and resumed his old occupation as a miner. Some of his old friends at Centerville gave him a reception on his return, firing a few anvils and getting generally jolly. McDonald has certainly won all the congratulations which he received.

The World contains no mining news.

The Boise City Statesman of the 8th inst. has the following:

The charter election passed off yesterday with most perfect good humor. The vote was very light. The parties were not divided politically but into charter and anti charter. The charter was not submitted to the people, but the question was raised by running one set of candidates with the understanding that they would not qualify if elected. The result was a majority of twenty for the anti charter party.

The trial of Victor Rowley for the murder of Jacob Jordan last December, was commenced yesterday. A jury was obtained and a part of the witnesses for the prosecution examined, when the court adjourned till ten o'clock this morning.

Walla Walla Items

The Statesman of May 11th, furnishes the following items:

Some parties from the Willamette, Oregon, passed through Walla Walla one day this week with a band of some two hundred head of cattle mostly cows and yearlings, en route for Pen d'Oreille Lake. Those having the cattle in charge we are informed, design settling at the lake being impressed with the idea that the country around about them will soon "open up" and furnish lively times for the early settlers.

It will be noticed that we continue our quotations of the price of flour at $10 per bbl, although it is believed that purchases can be made at a lower figure. The fact is, there is a perfect stagnation in the flour market, and the figures given by no means represent sales. Wheat is quoted at $1 25 per bushel, but we doubt whether the millers will pay this sum for any considerable quantity. Indeed, we understand that they decline to buy at that figure. Under the impetus of low freights, parties unacquainted with the markets of the upper country, pitched in and shipped up large quantities of flour. These speculators thus far have been unable to realize cost and charges and the result is the speculation has proved a bad investment.

The Democratic voters of Walla Walla county meet in their respective precincts, on to-morrow, (Saturday) for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention, which meets at Walla Walla, on Wednesday, the 16th inst.

From time to time we hear the most flattering reports as to the progress being made by the children attending the public school. The average attendance is 80 scholars, with the names on the roll constantly increasing.

It will be seen from the report of the County Auditor, that notwithstanding, unfavorable circumstances, the county debt has been reduced in the sum of $6,605 during the past year. A gratifying result, and one that tax payers will appreciate.

The Union voters of Walla Walla county hold their precinct meetings on Saturday, the 19th inst., for the purpose of electing delegates. The County Convention will meet at Walla Walla, on Tuesday, the 22d inst.

Just as we were congratulating ourselves upon having a daily mail between Walla Walla and Portland, the O. S. N. Company withdrew their daily line of steamers, and as a result we are forced back to the old tri weekly arrangement. We have already thanked Postal Agent Brooks for his exertions in procuring what promised to be a daily mail, and have only to regret that the arrangement has fell through.

Washington Territory Items.

The Union Convention of Clarke county, met at Vancouver last Saturday, and after passing strong resolutions endorsing Congress for delaying the admission of unwashed traitors, put in nomination the following county ticket: Representatives—Justin Chenoweth, D. W. Gardner, H. G. Struve. Sheriff—S. W. Beall. Auditor—J. F. Caples. Treasurer—David Wall. Assessor—W. M. Simmons. Commissioner—John J. Clark. A good ticket, and one that will be elected.

SEATTLE, May 14.—Gertrude, a little daughter of W. E. Barnard, late President of the University, was terribly burned yesterday. An old and worthless book had been thrown into the fire, which the child attempted to rescue, and in doing so her clothes took fire. Mrs. Barnard, hearing her screams, rushed to her assistance, and succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until she was fatally injured. She died about five o'clock this morning. [This item was telegraphed in time for yesterday's paper, but was not furnished to the OREGONIAN. The operator says that the Herald employes must have taken both copies—by mistake as we suppose.—ED. OREGONIAN.]

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. POEM,

Delivered at the Celebration of Washington's Birthday on board Steamship "Colorado" Near San Francisco, Cal.

BY CAPT ENOCH D ADAMS

As we float on the sea near the Golden Gate,
Proud is the day that we celebrate;
Glorious the hour to the land and the wave
That to earth, in beneficence Washington gave
Let our banners be spread that we homage may yield
To the sage in the council the brave in the field;
To America gave he a revered name,
Uncanceled by time and unblotted by shame,
That shall stand when all others shall crumble in dust
And proclaim him forever the wise and the just
The heroes that wrestled the tyrant's sway
From our necks, of the stranger and alien away,
Have gone to our father the good Washington
The days of their pilgrimage ended and done
By the side of their Chief in full vigor they stand
From the skies they benignantly gaze on our land
They have watched the grand struggle through which we have passed,
And hail us with rapture, victorious at last
In their sons they behold all the valor of sires;
Unriven the altars unquenched are the fires
That they left, when to Heaven from Earth they ascended
To Washington join in his triumph march splendid
Oh think not that Earth contains all of the story,
They sing it to-day in the far realms of glory,
A Nation redeemed from the thraldom of wrong
Can give a new beauty to seraphim song,
Can enhance in its splendor, its spirit and tone,
This song of the angels the nearest the Throne
The four birthdays past there were sorrow and tears
For the brave soldiers killed by the base mutineers,
Though we know that their names would be cherished through time,
And forever recorded as heroes sublime
Though glory and pity and honor and fame
Should throw a bright halo round each gallant name,
Yet sadness would fall, like a blight on our joy,
Though our bliss it was great, it still had its alloy,
For hard is the parting of friends, though they die
For cause which drew Christ from his home in the sky
The flag of our country with bullets was rent,
And brothers, not strangers, those bullets had sent,
To the lash of slavery they bended their knees,
And the flag of their treason swung loose to the breeze,
And ashes and ruin and dust and despair,
Wherever it floated, attended them there.
Their pride it is broken, their cities are waste,
At their leisure repent what they did in their haste,
'Mid their ruins they sit like a stranger forlorn
And bewail as unlucky the hour they were born,
Such is fitting reward for their infamy deep,
The wind they did sow, and the whirlwind they reap.
Though endless their sorrow, our own is not brief,
For Death, the pale gleaner has reapt a full sheaf
Of our brightest, our strongest, our wisest and best,
And gathered alike from the East and the West,
But still we kept struggling through all the long years,
With victories enough to just rainbow our tears,
Till Gettysburg triumph, like wild flash of leven,
Illumined the breadth of the limitless heaven
'Twas daylight a moment, then brightness was gone,
And gloomier and deeper the night that came on,
Till Hooker, the hero, in valorous fight
With his sword hewed a pathway from Darkness to Light
On Lookout's summit we saw the day
Dispelling the night of Rebellion away,
And Peace upreaving her rainbow bridge
With one end resting on Mission Ridge—
Yet midst the wild tempest that over us broke,
When the land was beclouded with War's sulphur smoke,
When perished our young men like lilies at noon—
The wheat of our country mown down in its flower;
When manhood that grew through the full rounded years
The hail of the musketry cut, like a sheaf;
When we stood on the verge of Destruction's abyss,
And heard the wild surges of Anarchy hiss;
When all stars that we saw were the stars of our Flag,
So riddled with bullets it hung like a rag;
When the sky was all black and no cloud-rent of blue
Let one beam of glory the barricade through,
Still then, although hid from our battle-dimmed sight,
Our eagle soared high in the smile of God's light,
No arrow from quiver a rebel e'er drew
Could bring that proud bird from his home in the blue
When the smoke of the battle from Lookout was whirled,
And lay in the vale, like a night on the world,
As our comrades that eminence gallantly trod,
The prophets of Freedom, as Moses of God,
Far over the summit in thin atmosphere,
The tempest just ended had rendered most clear,
Our emblem of glory, unfettered, unstained,
Soared out from his nest on the crest they had gained
And upward his flight as our nation's shall be,
For God has ordained that this world shall be free
Last birthday beheld us all bleeding and torn
As we lay on the threshold of Victory's morn,
The Rebellion was throttled by Grant where he stood,
And Sherman was following the fast-flying Hood,
He had swept with his column adown to the sea,
There were bondmen before him, behind they were free;
Our Flag it was waving on Sumter once more,
And Liberty knocked at Secession's last door.
The nations that viewed us with anger and scorn,
Behold us arise with a splendor new-born,
Columbia, baptized in the blood of the free,
Like Venus in beauty rose out of the sea,
Above her the star spangled banner unfurled,
Creation of Heaven, yet touching the world,
A promise that Slavery with dark crimson flood
Should never more deluge the nation with blood,
And Lincoln, the martyr, to Washington joined,
In History forever shall be intertwined—
Last birthday on Earth he was one of our band,
This birthday in Heaven our chieftain doth stand,
And marshalling all the dead heroes in blue
They Washington pass in triumphant review.

Letter from Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE, May 11, 1866.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:—The county of Yamhill having been claimed for the Copperheads by their organs during last winter and early spring, at length the poor fellows begin to believe that with a vigorous canvass, they could carry it. Hence the effort now being made to that end.

They commenced turning on the gas the day they made their county nominations, but the light produced thereby, bears a stronger resemblance of that [illegible] which lighted up the optics of P. [illegible] caused him to exclaim, "O for a rip [illegible] orb, which my highly sensitive [illegible] has seated 'rom afar,'" than for the [illegible] of Jacksonian Democracy, [illegible] the old paths by the ancient heroes of [illegible] renown.

[illegible] came first—Jo. and John—[illegible] Portland and the other from Salem. They had a good hearing. John—who is no account here—returns to Portland, and will probably remain there, but Jo., the great man of the party, will be with us again on the first of June.

Gov. Gibbs, Hon. David Logan, Hon. J. H. Mitchell, Col. Hawkins, Col. Kelly and our next Chief Magistrate for the State of Oregon, have also been with us, drawing large audiences. Gov. Gibbs made two speeches here, one at McMinville and one at Amity. Mr. Logan has addressed us once, and has promised to be with us again soon. Mr. Mitchell gave us one of his best speeches on the evening of the 8th inst., and the gallant Col. Hawkins made four speeches in the county, everywhere electrifying the people with his most fascinating style of oratory, by the simplicity and truthfulness of his statements—always backed by evidence, always backed by a peculiar kind of vim that don't suit quite so well the malignant element of the Democratic party.

Yesterday Judge Woods and Col. Kelly were with us. We regard it as the great day of the canvass. Mr. Woods had the opening and the closing. Each spoke an hour and a half. Woods had the privilege of making a rejoinder, occupying fifteen minutes. The audience was very large. But one larger ever convened here for similar purposes—and the candidates affirm that only one larger audience have they met in the State, which was at Eugene City. The Democracy all came in to see how the "strong ass" got on with his load. They have all along regarded Issachar Kelly as the ablest man in the State, and possessed of the purest character. He is a man of some power and energy, but a bad case and a coarse organization render him an object of extreme loathing to all persons of refined taste and culture. He is without doubt one of the most unscrupulous demagogues in the State. For a sample of conduct in this county: While at Amity day before yesterday, he was listening to Col. Hawkins. Col. H. as usual bore down pretty heavy on the rebs, which excited the ire of the muscular Colonel (who had won laurels and the ears of Po-Po-Mox-Mox), to such a pitch as to cause him to call the speaker a traitor. No sooner said than Col. Hawkins left the stand, and made for him. Whereupon our Indian fighter blustered, and brandishing his clenched fists, swore like a trooper in the presence of a large number of ladies and gentlemen. Parties stepped in and prevented any difficulty. Yesterday again, while he was speaking here, a Union man and a Copperhead in the crowd got to bandying epithets. The belligerent Colonel, hearing the lie given, thought it was meant for him, so he turned in the direction of the voice and shouted, "you lie, G—d d—n you!" Aside from this little affair everything passed off very pleasantly, except that an allusion was made that some persons here would swear that Mr. Woods had cut down the flag three or four years ago. Upon examination of the case on the stand, a man came forward and stated that he was with the person who cut it down, and that man was not Woods, and that he—Woods—knew nothing about it. So much for that. It was manufactured "out of whole cloth," for partisan purposes. Almost everybody who listened to Judge Woods, of all shades of politics, agree that his speech was a complete and most masterly argument in defense of the six or seven propositions he undertook to discuss. His speech is classed among the very best delivered in this State at any time. He is regarded now all over the Willamette valley as the strongest and toughest debater we have. He will carry this county triumphantly over the Democratic candidate; and the whole Union ticket, State and county, will be elected by at least one hundred majority. Yours truly, ***

THE PRESIDENT'S PATRONAGE.—We congratulate the Washington Chronicle, says the New York Tribune, upon the President's order, directing no more Government advertising to be printed in its columns. The printing of "Pub. Docs." was always poor business for a newspaper, and we like retrenchment even at the expense of our friends. We guess the Chronicle can worry along without "Pub. Doc."

Letter from Salem

SALEM, May 8th, 1866.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Allow me, through your columns, to send greeting to the "Jones family," alias "Old Guard," my special compliments. It appears that the description given in my last of that old dilapidated farce, so highly prized, by a few admiring friends in this place, has created some unpleasant feelings, and many are the invectives heaped upon your correspondent's head for the insinuation that their favorite howitzer was ever mounted on the "walls of Zion" even your pious and devoted Pike County contemporary pays his respects and familiarly calls me "Sam," without even an introduction—Sam Forrest! Well that is high toned, surely. Don't allow my distinguished and highly esteemed copperhead friend to worry about "Sam" or "any other man." I had the pleasure of seeing his highly intellectual countenance on that memorable evening when his friends were experimenting with the aforesaid gun and I can only say that had any lecturer and phrenologist been accessible, I should at once have procured a chart of his distinguished mug, for future reference. It would be a valuable acquisition to any museum.

Since my last, the gubernatorial candidates Judge Woods and Col. Kelly, have visited the good people of this place and discussed the issues of the day to an anxious crowd. It was truly a grand gala day for old Marion. A large audience densely packed, greeted their appearance. Woods opened with a speech of an hour and a half, followed by Kelly, same length of time, and a rejoinder by Woods of fifteen minutes. If any doubts or misgivings existed in the minds of any one as to Woods' ability to cope with an adversary of Kelly's calibre, those doubts are effectually dispelled in this community. Poor Issachar! already overburdened with his ponderous load of treason and corruption (the head and tail of his ticket), was lashed without mercy. The corner posts, stancheons, braces, and planks of that precious fabric, the Democratic platform, were entirely destroyed and nothing left but a mass of ruins, with Issachar and his precious freight in the midst. Alas, poor Issachar! Thou art shorn of thy strength; thy glory has departed! Once twice—yes, thrice—hast thou hankered after "the flesh pots of Egypt;" thou has labored assiduously to overcome the will of the people and to force thyself upon them as their ruler; but all thy efforts have been in vain. I sympathise, and weep with thee, O, Issachar! but my sympathy and tears will avail thee little. Postpone writing that inaugural at present; return to the classic sands of Wasco, and there, while enjoying your favorite calumet and killikinick, dream of the Executive Department and be content.

At the close of the speaking, it was announced on the outside in a clandestine manner, that there would be a free lecture in the evening on the subject of "Nigger Elevation," in connection with a skillful legerdemain performer, with a few trained animals, and panoramic views of the rise and progress of the Abolition party in Oregon. Front seats reserved for Niggers and Chinamen, under the provisions of the Civil Rights act. Owing to the character of the performer, I did not invest, and consequently am not able to speak from personal observation of the performance. I hear on the street, that like all other side-shows, it was a regular sell. The trained animals consisted of a monkey as chief, and a pig as accessory. His legerdemain tricks were numerous; among them I might mention the old one of "procuring clean shirts without seeing the washerwoman;" also, of "procuring liquid refreshments on the same principle;" and sometimes on none at all. The mode and manner of procuring paper and other material to run a newspaper without making the usual connection—a new trick, and one that is now practiced by nearly all the papers advocating the "Old Guards," preferment to office. I understand that Colonel Kelly was considerably troubled at the impudence of this itinerant showman, by referring constantly to him as one of his patrons, and exhibiting his animals on the same day and evening on which the Colonel speaks. This menagerie will be at your place during the canvass. Yours, FORREST, Without "Sam."

Letter from McMinnville.

MCMINNVILLE, May 8th, 1866.

EDITOR OREGONIAN

Thinking your numerous readers would be interested to hear of our political prospects, I shall write a hurried sketch for your columns. His Excellency Gov. Gibbs, and Col. Hawkins addressed a large and enthusiastic audience here this afternoon. The Governor's speech was convincing, concise and logical; refuting by overwhelming statistical testimony all the foul slanders uttered against his administration by the Copperheads of this State, convincing all that the financial affairs of the State had been conducted with judicious economy, and that the State had funds on hand nearly sufficient to pay her indebtedness.

He was followed by Col. Hawkins in a withering speech of two hours, under which the Cops became very restless and contentious. Among them was one W T Newby, who kept calling for proof, and no doubt received as much as he desired. The proof he so much desired is found in Pollard's history of the rebellion, which the worthy gentleman keeps well dusted by constant use but being a slow reader he may not have come to that yet. This man Newby has been a standing candidate with all the political parties in this county, with which he has been associated, including the Old Line Whigs, Know-Nothings, Democrats and secessionists, until the people have named him the Anvil, from the fact that he is always beaten. He is a diminutive specimen of humanity both in body and intellect. He is not a nominee of his party this year, although he has been able to stand the Joe Teal test, having been a consistent rebel for the last six years. The Copperheads assembled in the evening in pursuance of a call, writhing under the severe castigation they had received from Col Hawkins. They put forward one Hurlbert, late from California, who informed his hearers that the Governor and Col. Hawkins came in a fine carriage, attended by a band of music and with flags flying, but we came without show, "gentlemen the Democratic party has no flag." This announcement surprised no one, as history teaches that they lost theirs at the surrender of Lee and Johnson. He then read part of the Civil Rights Bill, and contended that it conflicted with the Constitution of the State of Oregon. Thanking the audience for their kind attention he took his seat.

Mr. Newby (alias the anvil) was then introduced. The political garbage of his speech, accompanied by his schoolboy gestures, to be at all appreciated must be heard and seen. Col H elevated him by deigning to notice his interrogatories, which enabled him to put forth the following: That the Gov. had misrepresented Mr. Lafayette Lane, that—"hem" (then took a sup of water to cool his parched tongue) if old Joe was a traitor—"hem"—(a little more water) and John a rebel (water) that the sour grapes had'nt ought to set the children's teeth on edge; that he would soon come to the "pint!" that if it had not been (a little more water) for the Disunion Senators in the Legislature this State would have been ruined. Then he undertook to read some dispatches with regard to the organization of a new party in the east, stopping every now and then to spell out the "big" words of three syllables, pausing occasionally also between busts of eloquence to cool his parched lips with natures choicest beverage. He proceeded to tell his brethren that the Civil Rights bill was unconstitutional—that Webster's dictionary said citizen meant voter and that the Oregonian did not publish the bill right. Then he took up the cause of his brethren in the South "bokase" they could'nt get into the Sinatel. He next ventilated the subject of taxation without representation, and said he thought Thad Stevens a very bad man "kase" he wanted the niggers to vote.

In conclusion I will say Yamhill will roll up her usual majority in June next in favor of humanity, justice and the Union in spite of Democratic recruits from Price's army.

Letter from Canyon City.

EDITOR OREGONIAN

The Union ticket of this county is an exceedingly strong one, composed as it is of the ablest and most popular men in the county. We have the strongest assurances from all parts of the county that the county ticket with the State ticket, will lead the so called Democratic ticket 275 to 325 votes in Grant county. The Congressional candidates did not speak here last Saturday as per announcement in your paper, because as we presume they could not get from Auburn here in consequence of the snow lying on the mountains between this place and Granite Creek. The Union party, however, had a very large and enthusiastic meeting at the Courthouse, and were ably and eloquently addressed by L. O. Sterns, their candidate for State Senator, Judge Hill, J. W. Whalley, Messrs. Brents and McKean, the Union candidates for representatives, Fred. Adams, candidate for county judge, and A. H. Morehead, candidate for county clerk. The Democracy admit that we will elect the most of our ticket, and in that respect we do not disagree much, for we will elect the whole of it. The Union party is a unit here; whereas the Democracy are wonderfully mixed and divided, they have no hope of electing a single officer. Their central committee met last night and made an attempt to get their candidates for county judge and state senator to "draw off," because of their unpopularity, but failed.

THE INDIANS

Killed a man about ten miles from Canyon City last Friday. He was shot with arrows in twenty two places, and was apparently beaten over the head with a club. He was a German and his name I did not learn. [Probably John Witmer.—ED. OREGONIAN.] He had two fine animals with him packed with provisions, and was not armed. The Indians are all around us and stock is being daily stolen by them. Neither life nor property is safe a mile from town. The authorities have been so often supplicated without avail that we despair of assistance, and our mines will not be developed as they should be for another year to come. A petition is being circulated to day asking of Governor Gibbs immediate assistance. Say nothing of the lives that have been lost, and the property that has been lost between here and the Dalles, if properly appropriated, would have cleared this section of every Indian that infests it. We are at present entirely isolated from every section of the State and from the fertile portions of our own county, viz: Elk Creek and Quartz Gulch. Men have to travel in large bands armed for mutual protection in every part of our county. The people are powerless and the authorities culpably criminally negligent. This is truth and that it cannot be disputed. You can publish the foregoing if you desire.

GAINING NOTORIETY.—The Herald of this city is already becoming notorious abroad for its Democratic scurrility. The Sacramento Bee has the following notice of it:

The editorial fraternity in Oregon have achieved a reputation for the use of scurrilous expressions which, whether deserved or not, distinguishes them from the conduct as of the press in other localities. But all are not given to such perversions of language, and the OREGONIAN is an exception. In the growing city of Portland a paper of the Democratic persuasion is published under the good old Democratic title of the Herald, its editorials being characterized by the sort of verbiage which passes now-a-days for "Democratic"—although we never could see for our part, why dirt and Democracy should necessarily be coupled invariably as they are, or why contemptible conduct should be added.

His is the usual style of the sympathizing journals. There is hardly one of them that has not imputed tyranny to the Government and covertly urged its dog edition that has not done its utmost to produce a counter rebellion in the North, and that has not showered the vilest epithets upon the soldiers of the Union. Worse than all this they have gone out of their way to cast a slur upon the characters of those self-sacrificing women who abandoned comfortable, and in some cases, luxurious homes to relieve the sufferings of the wounded and the pangs of the dying patriots. What has the Oregon defamer to say of Clara Barton, a young lady who, since the war, animated by the purest feelings of humanity only has at her own expense identified and decently buried the bodies of many thousands of our soldiers who perished on the field of battle or in the crowded prison pen of Andersonville? All honor to these "angels of mercy," who have braved the dangers of the pestilence and the scorn of hosts of craven renegades like the man of the Herald, that the world might not reproach their sex with having failed to perform its share of the duties of patriotism!

HOW NATURAL, AND YET HOW AGREEABLE it is to enjoy the comforts of a good bed to rest his or her weary limbs upon and I can say from experience that there is no style of bed that compares with the MOULTON SPRING BED BOTTOM, BROMLEY'S PATENT, for Health and Comfort, Durability and Cheapness; can be attached to any bedstead and does not get out of order. The model of this bed bottom can be seen at HENDEE'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY and orders taken for all that may wish to purchase. Also the full size bed in working order can be seen and had on short notice at Mr. Wilcox's Furniture Store, on Front street, near the bridge. Price—Double Bed $10; Single Bed $7.

Mr Hendee will take by his New Invention Head Pictures for $4 00 per dozen. Will be at his Rooms from 9 A M to 4 P M. my30tf

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. THAT OLD GREENBACK CA[illegible]

am still obliged to accept of Legal Tender Notes
at Portland have been since Dec 17, 1862, for the rent of my Handsome Brick
Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public, that
JACOB MAYER
Leased the building of me [illegible]
1862, for a term of years [illegible] time there was no such [illegible] vogue, and it was understood [illegible] were Cash. Since the date [illegible] have received the depreciated [illegible]
larly for the rent of [illegible]
CITY OF PARIS STORE!
making less than two fifths of [illegible] said Mayer was to pay. He lea[illegible] building at very advantageous [illegible] even were he now to comply w[illegible] tract, and pay in Coin, would [illegible]
the best bargain in the city [illegible]
this statement to show the pu[illegible] what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dol lars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see how much it costs to have such tenants in such costly buildings
as the one referred to above.
